

Dolores Antunes Appointed Vice President, Sales

Dolores Antunes was recently promoted to Vice President, Sales, at the Princess House home office.

Many of you met Dolores in her most recent role of Regional Sales Director for the Northeast region; a position through which she has earned the respect and admiration of Consultants and Organizers across the country.

Before joining Princess House in 1993, she enjoyed a 25 year career with Avon Products, first as an independent field representative. Dolores then moved into field sales management through a variety of positions with increased responsibilities, including field training, and ultimately became Regional Vice President of Sales and Marketing.

In her new position, Dolores looks forward to sharing her experience and enthusiasm with all of us as we take part in the future growth of Princess House.

Please join us in our congratulations! We're sure the experience, energy and total professionalism Dolores Antunes brings to our company will take us to new heights of success!

Dolores resides in Franklin, Massachusetts, with her husband, Earl. They are the parents of two grown daughters and the proud grandparents of four.

